

NEITHER, EITHER, NOR, SO

My son is a good student. { my daughter is too.
so is my daughter.

I've got a new bicycle. { Mary has too.
so has Mary.

Peter doesn't like meat. { Sally doesn't either.
neither does Sally.
nor does Sally.

I won't go { Sally won't either.
neither will Sally.
nor will Sally.

Here are some sentences which a friend can say to you. Answer with a short "SO" sentence.

- I must stay here. _____
- I came to school on time. _____
- Susan has got blonde hair. _____
- Scott can play tennis well. _____
- The teacher was angry. _____
- John has just phoned. _____
- They lived in Madrid. _____
- Margaret likes 'paella'. _____
- I help my mother at home. _____
- She works too hard. _____
- Peter should practice his pronunciation. _____
- She feels cold. _____
- I will come if I have time. _____
- I've finished. _____

Now you must use NEITHER or NOR in place of 'so'.

- I'm not a nurse. _____
- They didn't say anything. _____
- He shouldn't stay out so late. _____
- Sheila doesn't like maths. _____
- I didn't do it if I were you. _____
- His brother can't drive a car. _____
- Peter doesn't teach History. _____
- My son is going to work harder next year. _____
- She can't play tennis this afternoon. _____
- You mustn't use your mobile phone in class. _____
- Peter hasn't waited for a long time. _____
- They won't be here on Sunday. _____
- My friends didn't go to the party. _____
- John doesn't remember. _____

Use NEITHER, NOR or SO to write these sentences in a different way:

- My sister cut herself. Your sister cut herself. _____
- My brother cleaned his shoes before going to bed. His brother cleaned his shoes before going to bed.

- Peter didn't know about it and I didn't know about it either. _____
- The manager wasn't surprised. His companions weren't surprised either. _____
- You mustn't touch the teacher's bag. The other students mustn't either. _____
- We had our lunch at home. Sally had hers at home too. _____
- The students can't leave yet and the teachers can't leave yet either. _____
- Her horse won't jump over the river and mine won't either. _____
- We have a new car. Mr. Brown has a new car too. _____
- The driver shouted. I shouted too. _____
- You ought to come. Your parents ought to come either. _____

6 7 8 9 10