The next big thing: The Final

The Show

The final is here. There are just two competitors now: basketball player July Cole and tennis player Manolo Fares. Only one can be our next big thing and one of the future superstars of their sport. They're both strong and fast. They are both competitive. But viewers of this show know that sports stars need other abilities too. Can they think quickly? Can they play on a team? Do they train hard? To find out, watch the final list this Saturday.

3. Match the words to the definitions.

5. people in a competition _____
6. very famous people _____

4. Read about the competitors.

Read about Judy and Manolo. Share about the competitors.

The Competitors

Judy is 14, and she plays on her city's under-15 team. She can't run very fast, but she can think quickly, and she always makes good decisions and she can get better. Right now she doesn't always communicate well with other players on her team, and she gets stressed easily in difficult games. She's working hard on these things.

Manolo has a natural talent. He can serve fast and he can move very quickly when he's playing. But his game goes up and down. He usually plays very well, but there are days when he can't concentrate and he plays badly. The problem is, he can't practice every day. He also wants to be a doctor, so he studies a lot too.

React

5. Work in pairs: Answer the questions.

1. Which competitor is the next big thing? Give your opinion and explain why.
2. Would you like to watch the show?
