

Put the verbs in the parentheses into the correct tenses, "Past perfect" or "Past simple".

1. The patient _____ (already die) when the doctor _____ .
(arrive)
2. I _____ (leave) the house before he _____. (come)
3. He _____ (tell) me that he _____ (never work) so hard before.
4. He _____ (just go) to bed when he _____ (hear) a knock at the door.
5. Sarah _____ (lose) her new book two days ago after she _____ (buy) it.
6. They _____ (know) they _____ (lost) the way because of the foggy weather.
7. The supermarket _____ (close) by the time I _____
(get) there, so I _____ (go) to the local shop instead.
8. Even though I _____ (already explain) the problem to her in great detail, she still _____ (want) me to go through with her again.
9. As the worker _____ (never behave) like that previously, the manager _____ (decide) to overlook the incident.
10. As he _____ (not arrive) by the arranged time, we _____ (have to) leave without him.
11. It was not until she _____ (get) on the train that she _____ (realize) that somewhere between home and the station
she _____ (lose) her train pass.
12. He _____ (recognize) me straightaway even though he
_____ (not see) me since I _____ (be) a child.
13. Mike's uncle _____ (not know) that he _____ (give up) smoking three months before.
14. It _____ (be) revealed at the trial that the accused man
_____ (not go) out on the night of the murder.
15. On the way to work yesterday, one of the tires of the minibus burst suddenly. Obviously the driver _____ (not check) them properly before he _____ (set) off.